

A piece of your town's heritage
....is waiting for you to discover at the

GOULDSBORO

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

(Photo by Larry Peterson)

 OUR BEAN SUPPERS AND SAVORY DESSERTS

Those tasty locally-cooked suppers happen on the third Saturday from June to September at the West Bay Church on old Rt. 1

 MONDAY PROGRAMS

The town and region's heritage and culture is explored in fascinating monthly talks and slide shows ---open to all on first or second Monday evenings- May to October at the Old Town House on Rt 1, across from Clinic Road. See the list below.

 MUSEUM DISPLAYS AND RESOURCES AT THE OLD TOWN HOUSE

The story of your town's families, its historic lands and lifeways, in exhibits and resources to discover at the Museum --Saturday afternoons from June to September.

 DRAMATIC PENINSULA PAINTING--RAFFLE = = = ==>

At suppers and programs, raffle tickets for an oil painting of Schoodic

by renowned artist Syd Browne.

 A MEMBERSHIP OPEN TO ALL

A complimentary Newsletter and membership available for Society newcomers at suppers and programs.

The Gouldsboro Historical Society-- devoted to researching, collecting, and preserving the Town's historical material, and educating citizens about the history of our Town and region. The Society serves the community with a historic Museum and archive at the Old Town House on Rt 1, across from Clinic Road-- and by cooperating with schools and local organizations, as well as offering numerous events to inform and entertain the public.

Find Gouldsboro Historical Society on Facebook or the website at gouldsborohistory.org

THE 2016 SEASON'S PROGRAMS

Monday, May 2, 7:00 pm— An Acadia Centennial Event !

“Life at the Schoodic Navy Base—1935-2002” at the West Bay Church,
by David Phaneuf, LT CMDR, USN (ret.), Base cryptographer and author of Winter Harbor's Naval History.

Monday June 6, 7:00 pm

“1815—The Downeast Rebounds from Foreign Occupation” at the West Bay Church, by Allen Workman, GHS Secretary, lecturer, author of Schoodic Point--History on he Edge of ANP.

Monday, July 11, 7:00 pm

“Gouldsboro's Cemeteries”--the ongoing Cemetery Project, at the Historical Society Museum, by Chuck Hodge, GHS, and Sheila Daley GHS Assistant Curator.

Monday, August 1, 7:00 pm

“ ‘As Others See Us’ – Alexander Baring, Lord Ashburton—(An Englishman's View of Gouldsboro),”-- at the Historical Society Museum by Rev., Charles A. Joy, GHS researcher and popular GHS lecturer.

Monday September 12, 7:00 pm-- An Acadia Centennial Event !

“Auto Wars: Opening MDI to Cars & the Growth of Acadia National Park”--at Historical Society Museum
by Raney Bench, Seal Cove Auto Museum Director.

Monday, October 3, 7:00 pm—

“How the Bartlett Winery Has Grown,” - at the West Bay Church by Kathe and Bob Bartlett, founders and proprietors of the winery.

Two programs focus on our region's ties to Acadia National Park—now in its CENTENNIAL YEAR!!

The MUSEUM features an exhibit on the Peninsula's role in forming ANP Schoodic